

FINE TUNED

Albert Dock
14th — 15th July,
10am — 6pm

THINGS TO DO AND SEE AT FINE TUNED

ROUTEMASTER BUS BAR WITH REBOOT DJs
Salthouse Dockyard

Celebrating our amazing cultural inheritance and Rebooting it for the 21st century, Reboot have developed a concept of music that celebrates the history of creative cultures, blending them with new technology and artists from around the world. Join them for a joyous journey through music past and present.

THE HUMAN JUKEBOX
Hartley Quay

The Worlds first human sized jukebox! Our bumper-sized collection of fun contains one human DJ on a mission to dazzle you with humorous performances, top tunes, dazzling light displays, futuristic lasers and vintage vinyl.

THE ASTOUNDING BOOMBIKE
Around the event

Good Vibes! The Boombike takes entertainment to any crowd, anywhere! With a fun & quirky exterior and a technologically advanced interior, it's revved up to bring the disco to the dock.

JEAN & MORAG TEA LADIES ON A MARITIME ADVENTURE
Around the event

Jean and Morag are two feisty, tricycling tea ladies of a certain age. Legends of the local scene, these girls are always up for tea, biscuits and mischief and liven up any event they grace with their presence.

WORLD CUP POSTER WORKSHOP
Salthouse Dock

World Cup Fans! Commemorate a glorious summer of football and screen print your own 70's football poster. Drop into this workshop and customise your own print inspired by Match magazine, perfect for every childhood football fan.

FACEBOX BOUTIQUE
Salthouse Dockyard

Step inside this fabulous 'makeover' purple horse box for a gold-seal face-painting & glitter-tastic experience!

VINTAGE HAIR SALON
Martin Luther King
Building

Make an appointment for your weekend 'do' - with a matchless menu of Vintage hairdos our special pop-up salon has all the styles to match your Vintage Marketplace finds.
